

HIT THE SLOPES SAFELY AND RESPONSIBLY THIS SEASON

Ski season is here, and the Sierra Nevada mountains are as pristine and beautiful as ever. Before you head to the slopes, know what kinds of safety measures to expect from each South Lake Tahoe ski resort, all of which have taken precautions to keep guests and employees safe during the COVID-19 pandemic.

VAIL RESORTS: HEAVENLY MOUNTAIN RESORT, NORTHSTAR SKI RESORT, KIRKWOOD SKI RESORT

Reservation ONLY, priority to the season pass holders.

- Guests will be required to wear face coverings to get on the mountain and in all parts of resort operations, including in lift lines and while riding in lifts and gondolas.
- To maintain physical distancing on chairlifts and gondolas, the resort will only be seating related parties (guests skiing or riding together) or: two singles on opposite sides of a four-person lift; two singles or two doubles on opposite sides of a six-person lift; or two singles on opposite sides of our larger gondola cabins.
- Ski and ride school will be offered but with changes to help keep guests safe.
- Mountain access will be managed to ensure guests have the space they need. As such, Vail Resorts announced a mountain access reservation system and limits on lift tickets to prioritize its pass holders. Full details on the pass holder reservation system can be found here.

 The Heavenly Gondola and California Base Lodge is open for skiing and snowboarding Mondays - Fridays at 9:00am* and Saturdays and Sundays at 8:30am with either a pass or lift ticket along with a reservation for the day.

*Open for passholders at 8:30am on Mondays.

SIERRA-AT-TAHOE SKI RESORT

No reservations system, first come first serve.

- Face coverings will be required in all indoor spaces, the base area, while loading/unloading a lift and whenever physical distancing cannot be achieved.
- Physical distancing protocols will be in place for both indoor and outdoor spaces. Lodge capacity will be limited in compliance with local, state and federal regulations. Guests will not be required to ride a chairlift with people they do not know, and will be asked to self-group with members of their party.
- Daily staff wellness checks will be in place for guest and employee safety.
- At this time, Sierra-at-Tahoe does not plan on operating under a reservation system for Season Passholders.

SQUAW / ALPINE SKI RESORT

No reservation system, priority to the season pass holders.

- Squaw Valley Alpine Meadows intends to serve its guests without a reservation system, and Passholders will continue to have the best and most flexible access to the resort.
- We plan to manage general visitation by temporarily eliminating the sale of "walk-up" tickets at the window, and dynamically controlling the sale of advance purchase tickets.
- Squaw Ski Resort offers exclusive lift ticket discounts to Edgewood Tahoe Resort Lodge Guests that can be easily redeemed here.

MT. ROSE SKI TAHOE

No reservation system, priority to the season pass holders.

- Mt. Rose will continue to practice a heightened level of cleaning and disinfecting procedures, as well as an increased frequency in high-touch areas. Contactless payments (Mt. Rose Pass Pay, Apple Pay, Google Pay) are preferred.
- Lodge facilities will have overall capacity limitations and seating restrictions to meet required indoor operating guidelines.
- We ask that guests do not congregate in large groups while at the mountain, including but not limited to areas around the lodge or in the parking lots.
- Please maintain proper distance in lift queues, obey posted signs, and notify an attendant for any assistance.

HOMEWOOD MOUNTAIN RESORT

Advance reservations required.

- All tickets must be purchased online in advance, with limited quantities available each day. Lift tickets will not be available for purchase onsite.
- All lift ticket purchasers will be required to reserve their parking space every day.
- Face covering and physical distancing mandates in place.
