Edgewood Tahoe Resort welcomes Mario Bevilacqua von Gunderrode as new General Manager

Bevilacqua von Gunderrode brings over 25 years of experience to the role

STATELINE, Nev — (October X, 2024) — Edgewood Tahoe Resort is proud to announce Mario Bevilacqua von Gunderrode, General Manager, has joined the team, bringing an extensive background in the luxury hospitality industry to the lakefront resort.

Mario joins Edgewood Tahoe from his previous role as Chief Operations Officer at The Aspen Club in Aspen, Colorado. Previously to this, Mario was instrumental in leading three properties to achieve the prestigious Forbes 5-Star rating.

Mario's experience positions the resort for continued success and recognition on both national and international levels, while his passion for excellence, dedication to fostering a positive workplace culture, and commitment to guest satisfaction make him the perfect fit to lead Edgewood Tahoe into its next chapter.

"What attracted me to Edgewood Tahoe was the natural beauty of its surroundings, the genuine care that team members have demonstrated when I visited the property as a guest, and the rich history of its land," he explains. "Quality is never an accident. It is always the result of an intelligent effort, which is evident while visiting the resort."

As General Manager, Mario will focus on enhancing Edgewood's position as a premier luxury resort while creating a workplace environment where employees feel appreciated, recognized, and encouraged to grow. His leadership style, which emphasizes teaching and guiding younger managers, will ensure that Edgewood Tahoe remains a place of growth and opportunity for employees at every level.

"Mario's passion for sustainability will help us continue our legacy of land stewardship and environmental redevelopment," Corinna Osborne, Chief Operating Officer at Edgewood Tahoe, explains. "As a LEED Silver-certified building and a Beyond Green hotel, our top priority is always to minimize our environmental footprint and preserve the area's natural beauty. With Mario's dedication to sustainable practices, we are confident that he will complement our commitment to being stewards of the land and guardians of the lake."

When he's not on the property, Mario can be found making memories with his wife, Gabriela, and their two-year-old Whippet, Gioia. He's an avid skier, loves sailing, cooking, and of course, hiking the Sierra Nevadas. To get in touch with Mario, click here.
